YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

Who Needs to Tell Us

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the policy.

If You Do Not Tell Us Something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

AGENT OF INSURER

MB Insurance Group Pty Limited is acting under an authority to bind insurance and settle claims given by QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited. MB Insurance Group Pty Limited will be acting as the agent of QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited and not the agent of you, the insured.
